*NCO & Soldier Programs, National Guard, Army Reserve, Retired Soldier and Veterans, Cadets, Civilians, Young Professionals, and Families.

Thank you for joining the Association of the United States Army (AUSA). Together, we will continue forward with our shared mission: to provide a voice for the Army, support for the Soldier, and honor those who have served.

Keep this handy booklet nearby as a reminder of all the ways you can engage with your AUSA community and apply these benefits to your personal growth.

CENTER FOR LEADERSHIP

www.ausa.org/center-for-leadership

The AUSA Center for Leadership extends the reach of AUSA forums, publications, podcasts, and programs to educate and inspire leaders, primarily at the brigade level and below. The AUSA Center for Leadership develops leaders across the Total Army by bridging the gap that exists between Army priorities (“People First,” readiness, modernization, and infrastructure) and leader development efforts.

CHAPTERS

www.ausa.org/chapters

AUSA has 121 chapters worldwide. AUSA’s devoted regional, state, and chapter leaders are passionate member volunteers and the lifeblood between AUSA National and its 265,000+ members. This leadership, along with local members in AUSA chapters across the globe, connects with local government and business contacts to improve the professional, economic, and social quality of life in Army communities. Chapters provide a wide array of local programs to support current and former Army members and their families, from scholarships to recognition for outstanding service. Connect with your chapter to learn more.

EVENTS

www.ausa.org/meet

ANNUAL MEETING & EXPOSITION

www.ausa.org/am

The AUSA Annual Meeting is the largest land-power exposition and professional development forum in the United States. Held annually in Washington D.C., this event attracts 30,000+ attendees, 600+ state-of-the-art exhibits, expert panels and seminars, and engagement with top Army and government leaders. Registration is free.

COFFEE SERIES

www.ausa.org/events/coffee-series

The AUSA Coffee Series features guest speakers from the Army and Department of Defense leadership. This event offers an unparalleled opportunity to educate, inform, and connect with key military, congressional, media, and industry personnel.

HOT TOPIC SERIES

www.ausa.org/hot-topics

Premium Members save up to $225 off on-site pricing
Military/Government is Free

AUSA's Hot Topics series features focused, one-day events covering pressing issues in national security. Members of industry, government, and the military engage with Army experts to discuss the current and future Army.

NOON REPORT WEBINAR SERIES

www.ausa.org/noon-reports

AUSA's Noon Report webinar series features presentations by senior Army leaders who are responsible for key programs and initiatives, as well as contemporary military authors who weave together the past, present, and future story of the United States Army.

SYMPOSIA AND EXPOSITIONS

www.ausa.org/meet

Military/Government is Free

AUSA is recognized in the defense community for its professional development symposia and expositions.

- The AUSA Global Force Symposium & Exposition, held in Huntsville, Alabama, is a three-day professional development event focused on force transformation and adaptability, critical points of acquisition, research and development, and military/industry partnerships.

- The AUSA LANPAC Symposium & Exposition, held in Honolulu, Hawaii, is a world-class international event highlighting the role of land forces in the Indo-Pacific theater and their contributions in peace and war.
- The AUSA Warfighter Summit & Exposition is a new two-day leader and professional development event. The primary focus of this event is the Soldier and defense industry professionals that support all aspects of the Warfighter.
- AUSA also organizes the USA Security and Defense Pavilion at defense expositions abroad, offering networking opportunities with key decision-makers, full-service support, and increased visibility in the global market.

Special topic symposia and expositions are added based on the Army's most urgent priorities. Check back often to see our latest offerings.

FAMILY READINESS

www.ausa.org/family

AUSA is dedicated to our Army families, providing tools to navigate the challenges of military life and a means to communicate with the highest levels within the Army and on Capitol Hill.

Join in special events—like Town Halls with senior Army leaders and collaborations with Operation Deploy Your Dress—and access tailored resources like our Customs, Courtesies and Traditions of the U.S. Army booklet, PCS Guides, and monthly Family Voices episodes in the AUSA Army Matters podcast.

AUSA also honors exceptional Army families with the annual Family of the Year Award, which recognizes an exceptional Army family making a positive difference in our Army community.

GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS

www.ausa.org/government-affairs

AUSA's Government Affairs office coordinates our activities related to the U.S. Congress and the Executive Branch. It helps maximize Army representation in the legislative process with top-level advocacy campaigns and grassroots support. Learn where AUSA stands on key concerns with our annual Focus Areas white paper.

JOBS CENTRAL

www.ausa.org/jobscentral

AUSA's Jobs Central is your ultimate job search tool.

Create a profile and upload your resume for review by employers. Set up alerts to be notified when a job matches your profile, view resume and interview tips, and check the salary calculator to help you negotiate an appropriate salary based on job and location.

Take advantage of our free resume review and critique by a professional resume writer at Top Resume. They will also submit it through the same applicant tracking system companies utilize to show you how you appear to an employer after this process.

LIVESTREAMS

www.ausa.org/live

Can't make it to an AUSA professional event in person?

Engage in dynamic discussions with real-time comments and questions through our web-based live streaming services or watch a session later at a time or place that works for you.

PROGRAMS

ARMY CIVILIANS

www.ausa.org/army-civilians

AUSA celebrates Army Civilians' vital contributions to the Army community. AUSA's Army Civilian Advisory Committee meets regularly to discuss Army Civilian interests and address concerns. AUSA also recognizes exemplary Army Civilian service with the Joseph P. Cribbins Medal during the AUSA Annual Meeting.

ARMY NATIONAL GUARD

www.ausa.org/guard

AUSA regularly communicates and meets with senior leaders of the Army National Guard to discuss important issues. Also, AUSA works closely with AUSA Association Partners the National Guard Association of the United States (NGAUS) and the Enlisted Association of the National Guard of the United States (EANGUS), and fully endorses the Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR) program.

ARMY RESERVE

www.ausa.org/reserve

AUSA protects and supports our Army Reserve, regularly communicating and meeting with Army Reserve leadership to learn about and act on specific issues affecting Army Reserve Soldiers and their families. AUSA continues to promote cooperation and understanding between civilian employers and reserve component employees through a close relationship with ESGR.

NCO & SOLDIER PROGRAMS

www.ausa.org/nco-soldier

NCO & Soldier programs provide AUSA members with educational and mentorship materials, tailored events, and relevant Army program updates. Members can participate in virtual town halls and professional development forums, and learn more about Enlisted Talent Management guiding future management of the enlisted force.

Check out Soldier Today, a monthly segment in the Army Matters podcast and a twice weekly e-newsletter focused on the professional development of NCO emerging leaders. Outstanding NCOs and Soldiers, including squads from the Old Guard, also have access to AUSA's This is My Squad notebook based on the SMA's current initiative of the same name.

AUSA has also launched recent initiatives to broaden reach in NCO & Soldier communities, to include greater Army service participation in AUSA chapters and more leadership, social, and support opportunities at the local levels.

RETIRED SOLDIERS & VETERANS

www.ausa.org/retired-veteran

AUSA offers resources and legislative support for Army veterans and retired Soldiers. Learn the latest TRICARE and U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs updates, transitioning tips from the AUSA Retirement Planning Guide, and Army Soldier for Life news for Veteran and Retired Soldier information.

U.S. ARMY CADETS

www.ausa.org/cadets

$10 for 2-year membership

AUSA provides cadets from all commissioning sources (Senior ROTC, USMA, OCS) and Junior ROTC with exclusive pricing on professional development resources. These resources are designed to help cadets prepare for service as future Army leaders. AUSA also provides opportunities for scholarships, mentoring programs, community service, and local and national recognition. Cadets who display exemplary leadership and academic achievement are eligible for the AUSA cadet award program.

YOUNG PROFESSIONALSwww.ausa.org/yp

AUSA educates, informs, and connects emerging leaders in the AUSA community. Our Young Professionals program is a national initiative to provide value through professional development activities, leadership positions, and membership benefits.

PUBLICATIONS & NEWS*ARMY MAGAZINEwww.ausa.org/armymagazineNon-Member Price: $53/year

Born as the Infantry Journal in 1904, ARMY magazine includes articles, letters, and opinion pieces by current and former Army leaders of all ranks—military and civilian—fulfilling AUSA's core objectives: to tell the Army's story, show the Army's vital role in national security, and advance the profession of Soldiering.

Published in print and digital forms, members receive 12 issues of the magazine each year, including our special October edition, the Green Book, published in conjunction with AUSA's Annual Meeting.

ARMY MATTERS PODCASTwww.ausa.org/podcast

AUSA's Army Matters podcast series includes a rotating cast of hosts who provide vital information on Army and defense issues through interviews and conversations with both military and civilian experts. The goal of this podcast is to educate, inform, and connect with the public, extending AUSA's educational reach to current and future members. The target audience encompasses the Total Army, to include Soldiers, Army civilians, and their families, as well as anyone with an interest in the Army and defense communities. Rotating each week, our hosts include:

- SMA(R) Dan Dailey, focusing on subjects relevant to our Soldiers;
- COL (R) Scott Halstead, sharing inspirational leadership stories;
- Holly Dailey, offering insights on the ins and outs of our military families' journeys;
- Joe Craig, introducing compelling stories of military history through conversations with contemporary authors; and
- COL(R) Dan Roper, examining key challenges facing the U.S. Army as it transforms to defeat present and future threats.

A new episode is posted each Monday, cycling through the five shows. Episodes can be found at www.ausa.org/podcast and on major podcast distribution platforms.

AUSA EXTRA

www.ausa.org/extra

AUSA Extra is a weekly digital newspaper featuring articles on the latest AUSA and Army news. It includes columns from subject matter experts on NCO and Soldier programs, Army legislation, Army family readiness, and the latest Army updates.

AUSA Extra also highlights outstanding chapter achievements and new AUSA member services and savings opportunities.

AUSA'S FIVE THINGS

A weekly forward-looking tip sheet covering the latest Army news, sent every Monday.

BOOK PROGRAM

www.ausa.org/books

The AUSA Book Program works with publishing partners to produce military-related titles about Army heritage, military theory and policy, and security in the modern world. AUSA members can purchase these books at a special rate.

In addition to these external titles, the AUSA Book Program also publishes graphic novels available for free download.

RESOURCES AND REPORTS

www.ausa.org/education

AUSA publishes professional development resources and special reports such as U.S. Army: ARMY 101, the bi-annual Army Profile, Spotlight papers, and Landpower essays. Download publications or Premium members may request complimentary copies at education@ausa.org.

SOLDIER TODAY

A twice weekly e-newsletter focused on the professional development of NCO emerging leaders.

SCHOLARSHIPS

www.ausa.org/scholarships
